

STRIKE SETTLED ON GOULD LINES

MACHINISTS AND OTHER CRAFTS-MEN SIGN AGREEMENT WITH THE RAILROADS.

BOTH CLAIM A VICTORY

Strike on Since May 2 Terminates in Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain
Shops—All to Be Reinstated
Within 30 Days.

St. Louis, Mo.—The strike on the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railroads, dating from May 2 last, and of the boiler makers, blacksmiths, coppermiths and their apprentices and helpers, dating from October 21 last, has been settled through an agreement reached at St. Louis between the officials of the railroads and the unions involved, and is now in effect. Both sides claim complete victory.

Settled at Opportune Time.
The number of machinists on strike on the system totaled 1,280, while the blacksmiths numbered 1,075, making a total of 2,355 men. The strike, according to those in position to know, was settled at an opportune time. Had it not been it would have reached great proportions within the next 30 days, and probably resulted in a partial, if not a complete tie-up of the Gould lines.

Part of the men are to get a nine-hour day and all are to be reinstated within 30 days. The foremen are to come back into the ranks. Half of the new workers put on are to retain their jobs.

Since October 21 the wages lost by the strikers has amounted to more than $9,500 per day. The total value of lost wages has amounted to $867,000.

DIAZ TROOPS DEFEATED

Second Battle Reported West of Chihuahua—Reported That Rebels Scored Decisive Victory.

El Paso, Tex.—News from Chihuahua indicates the Mexican rebels have scored a second decisive victory over Diaz troops in the fighting west of the city of Chihuahua.

The battle resulted in a rout for the federals. General Hernandez was in personal command of the Diaz troops. Late reports from La Junta declare the previous rebel victory was even more pronounced than first news indicated. According to stories of train passengers here, at least 1,000 federal soldiers were killed in that battle. The revolutionary losses were small comparatively.

The rebels pursued fighting tactics similar to those employed by Indians in the United States many years ago.

GREAT CHINESE UPRISING

American Schools and Missions Destroyed and Foreigners Said to Be in Danger in Great Revolt.

Pekin, China.—The southern part of the Chinese province of Kwantung and the southwestern part of Kiangtung are in a state of revolt against the authority of the empire. American schools, missions and hospitals have been destroyed, foreigners driven out and hundreds of peaceful Chinese soldiers slain.

Following an urgent appeal sent here from Canton, the ministry ordered every available soldier put in the field against the revolutionists.

AN EXPLOSION KILLS NINE

Many Missing After Mysterious Concussion at Power House of New York Railway Terminal.

New York City.—Nine persons are dead, eight are missing and supposed to be dead and more than a score are injured as the result of a mysterious explosion which wrecked the milk depot and carpenter shop of the New York Central railway at Forty-ninth street and Lexington avenue. So terrific was the force of the explosion that the big power house of the New Haven railroad, which is immediately behind the demolished structure, was almost destroyed, while adjacent property was badly battered and windows in all buildings for a radius of a dozen blocks were blown out.

The police said later that the explosion was probably caused by the ignition of a tank containing gas, which was in a car in the milk depot. It was set off, they said, by a spark from the third rail. This explosion caused the blowing up of a car loaded with dynamite.

Billy Sunday Gets $7,800.

Waterloo, Ia.—At the conclusion of a six weeks' campaign here in which 3,354 conversions were recorded, Billy Sunday, evangelist, received $7,800 from citizens, the largest sum presented to him by any Iowa city.

Mail Robber, Six, Caught at Work.
Monaca, Pa.—A six-year-old mail robber was caught in the postoffice at Monaca with his arms full of mail he had taken from two boxes. A policeman stood and watched the child empty the two boxes.

WHERE INDIANS PROCE.

Making Considerable Success as Farmers on Reservation in South Dakota.

The Indians on the Sisseton reservation in the northwestern portion of South Dakota are making rapid progress in civilization. This is borne out by the statements of Major S. A. Allen, the reservation agent, who says that while fully 75 per cent of the reservation Indians are full bloods 65 per cent of them have become agriculturists and have proved themselves thrifty and fairly successful as farmers.

There are about 2,000 redskins on the reservation, which is 80 miles long and 40 miles wide. Of this amount of land the Indians have been allotted about 400,000 acres, while the remainder is now in the hands of the whites.

From this land the Indians this year raised approximately 100,000 bushels of wheat, 78,000 bushels of oats, 40,000 bushels of corn and 4,000 bushels of flax. Their fall, held during three days of October, will compare favorably with any white man's country fair in South Dakota. Included in the exhibits were ninety exhibits of small grain, forty of corn and a large number of vegetables. In addition fine showings were made of cattle, horses, hogs, sheep, chickens and other products of the farm.

There are thirteen churches on the reservation, the Episcopal, Presbyterian and Catholic denominations predominating. During the last two years 125 good farmhouses have been built. The Indians are in the main virtuous, self-respecting and show a remarkable affinity for civilization, the only drawback to their advancement, according to Major Allen, being their fondness for liquor, which is sometimes supplied them by bootleggers despite the most strenuous efforts of the government to keep the liquor dispensers out of reach of the Indians.—Aberdeen correspondence Omaha Bee

Getting Even.

"You know that fellow Jim McGroarty, the lad that's always comin' up an' thumpin' ye on th' chest an' yellin' 'How are we?'"

"I know him."

"I'll bet he's smashed 20 cigars for me—some o' them clear Havannys—but I'll get even with him now."

"How will ye do it?"

"I'll tell ye. Jim always hits me over the vest pocket where I carry me cigars. He'll hit me there just once more. There's no cigars in me vest pocket this mornin'. Instead of it there's a stick of dynamite, d'ye mind?"

Helped Some.

Rural Guest (in city, settling hotel bill)—I think you ought to make some reduction on that there bill, mister.

Hotel Clerk—Why?

Rural Guest—We didn't use the bath-tub, or the telephone, and Samanth made up the bed this mornin' besides!

The Uses of Adversity.

Still another advantage of being in moderate circumstances, such as an editor's for instance, is that you can always assist the processes of thought by absent-mindedly cutting the fringe off your cuffs.

Just as Guilty.

"If you're one of those aggravating persons that makes everybody else swear," says the Philosopher of Polly, "you are guilty of profanity, though you never uttered a cuss word in your life."

Paris Is Tea Mad.

Paris has gone tea mad. English customs cross the channel with amazing alacrity, and now all that is said or done, all that happens in Paris, between 3 and 7 a. m., is said, is done or happens around a tea pot.—Figaro, Paris.

Many Species of Shark.

Seventeen species of shark, some of them 25 feet in length, inhabit the far western seas, while the basking shark of the Indian ocean frequently attains a length of 60 feet.

PRAYER IS WITHOUT RESULT

Boy's Patience Is Exhausted After Frequent Petitions to Throne of Grace.

A young man who is prominent in church work in Philadelphia tells this about his nephew.
Harold is the youngster's name, and next door lives another boy by the name of Dewey. They are each seven years old, and like most children of their age are disposed to get into mischief as often as possible. Several days ago they found a man's coat lying on the front pavement while the owner was fixing a gas main. From the pockets of the coat the two boys abstracted several tickets, and when Harold's mother found it out she made him return the tickets and explained the sin which he had committed, warning him to pray that he be forgiven that night. He obeyed, and while on his knees added a prayer for Dewey as well!

The next night Harold's mother was in the next room when he said his prayers, and she heard him ask God to forgive Dewey for stealing a piece of cake. On the following evening he again was moved to ask forgiveness for his friend, this time for stealing three pieces of candy. Apparently his patience was exhausted, for the next evening his mother was in the adjoining room when he offered his evening prayer, and this is what she heard:
"Gosh darn it, God, I have done the best I could for Dewey. I guess you will have to watch him yourself."—Philadelphia Record.

HIRAM CARPENTER'S WONDERFUL CURE OF PSORIASIS.

"I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s, psoriasis, and others leprosy, commencing on my scalp; and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dust-pail of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. — treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; feet badly swollen; toe-nails came off; finger-nails dead and hard as a bone; hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. O my God! how I did suffer.

"My sister wouldn't give up; said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was applied to one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got Cuticura Resolvent, Ointment and Soap. I commenced by taking Cuticura Resolvent three times a day after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. Hiram E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. Y."

The above remarkable testimonial was written January 19, 1880, and is republished because of the permanency of the cure. Under date of April 22, 1910, Mr. Carpenter wrote from his present home, 610 Walnut St. So., Lansing, Mich.: "I have never suffered a return of the psoriasis and although many years have passed I have not forgotten the terrible suffering I endured before using the Cuticura Remedies."

What Impressed Him.

W. H. Child, president of the Yellowstone Park association, went to Europe two or three years ago and had for a companion a man interested in the hotel business. They traveled over Europe, investigating hotel and commissary problems to some extent, and finally arrived in Rome. They went into St. Peter's and stood beneath the dome. "Well," said Child, "here it is. Here's the dome." The hotel man took one look forward. Then he turned to Child and asked: "How much did that man in London say he wanted for them hams?"

The hack driver looked puzzled.

"What's the trouble?"

"I was wondering whether you wanted me to drive you to a hotel or a drug store."

AND GO AHEAD SLOWLY.

Philosopher—And now, after having reviewed all philosophy with you, there is only one law that I can lay down for your guidance.

Student—What is that?

Philosopher—When you are sure you are right, you should suspect that you are wrong.

Two Bad Cases in England Cured by Resinol Ointment.

I have been using Resinol Ointment during the last few weeks for a varicose ulcer on leg and can bear testimony to its cooling and curative qualities. Have never found anything to equal it. I was recommended by my sister, Mrs. Cairns Ladykirk, Norham on Tweed, to try it. She had been treated 14 months previously without effect, but was entirely cured by Resinol Ointment.

The Great Art of Dying.

To die without rebellion and without weakness is the masterpiece of a man. A mountain guide—whose name the London Daily Mail does not mention in narrating the story of his heroism—with two others, was leading a party over one of the most dangerous passes of the higher Alps.

The men, as is usual, were tied together by a long rope. As they scaled a wall of ice they slipped on the edge of a frightful chasm. The guide was at the end of the rope.

Without his weight there was a chance for the others to regain their footing; with it, his experienced eye told him, there was none. With instant courage he drew his knife from his belt and said quietly to the man next him:

"Tell mother how it happened, Edmond."

He cut the rope and fell, never to be seen again.

Greatly Changed.

In a little town in Maine where it is still the custom for the residents to attend the funerals of those whom they may have seen only a few times in their lives, regarding the event as a sort of social function, the undertaker was somewhat puzzled at the actions of one woman, who gazed in the coffin, shook her head sadly and returned to her seat, saying: "How changed!" only to repeat the process several times.

After this had been gone through three or four times the undertaker realized what was the trouble, and stepping up to the caller, said: "Madam, I think you must have made a mistake. This is John Sawyer that we are burying from here. Maria Brown's funeral is being held from a house in the next block."

Wants a Long Engagement.

"Do you believe in long engagements?" he asked after she had consented to be his.

"Yes, dearest," she replied. "I have always thought it was such a mistake for two people to rush into matrimony before they learned to really know each other."

"Well, about how long would you wish the engagement to be?"

"Let me see. Would you think it was too long if we did not get married until a week from next Thursday?"

A Shiver Figure.

"Now, Arthur," said his father, "you've been going to school long enough to write decently. Don't you know how to make a figure three?"

"Sure," said the boy. "You put your pencil on the paper and then you shiver."

WAS TOO PUBLIC FOR HIM

Mild Mannered Little Man Has Very Embarrassing Experience on Street.

He was a mild-mannered little man, short, with gray hair and spectacles. It was noon on Washington street, and as usual the crowds were shoving and pushing to get somewhere. The little man was trying to worm his way through the crowds.

A well-dressed woman, accompanied by a small boy, was mixed up in the crowd. She wanted to cross the street. The boy stopped to look in a window.

The lady reached down and grasped a hand, saying: "Take my hand, dear."

"Not right here on the public street," she was startled to hear some one reply.

Looking down she saw that she was clasping the hand of the very inoffensive little man, who seemed to be much confused and embarrassed.

"Sir!" said she, haughtily, "I don't want you; I want my son."—Boston Traveler.

Longitude and Dinner Time.

About eleven o'clock one morning Aunt Dinah was peeling potatoes for dinner. "Now I reckon that all other dis big worl' eberbody what's got anything to git a meal with is a-gettin' ready for dinner," she placidly remarked.

"Oh, no, Aunt Dinah," said Miss Nina. "In New York it's just about dinner time now, and out by the Rocky mountains it won't be dinner time for three hours yet."

"Oh, my, Miss Nina! You plumb sure o' that?"

"Plumb sure, Aunt Dinah."

"Well, I'm mighty glad I lives in a Christian land, whar when it's leben o'clock it's 'leben o'clock, and we can't nebber git mixed up on the dinner time."

Breaking It by Degrees.

Edmund Yates used to tell this anecdote of a physician who was a personal friend. As the story went, Yates once saw the doctor operate upon a man afflicted with blood poisoning, when he amputated the patient's leg.

"Do you think he'll recover, now?" asked Yates, after the operation was over.

"Recover!" exclaimed the physician. "Why, he never had a chance to get well."

"Then why in the world did you amputate that leg?"

"Why," said the surgeon, calmly. "You must not tell a patient the truth all at once, you know; you must first amuse him a little."

Mrs. Roosevelt an Economist.

Mrs. Roosevelt is said to have kept her gowns from one year to the next and even the third year, and yet was always beautifully dressed. The best-dressed woman in London is said to be Mrs. Keppell, who wears her gowns more than one season, having them made over for the second year, as her income does not allow of a great variety of gowns.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

"Here's a dandy, my boy—just what your mother wants!"

"No, it ain't!" returned the youth. "That turkey hasn't any clothes on."—Judge.
